

Too Many Candles

Tom Rosenthal

Why don't you hide and I'll count to ten?
I hope I don't mess it up by then
Fools rush in but the snail got crushed
And I went and lost my cool

Oh I've got some thinking to do

Granny May said 'love is okay but don't let it trouble your flow'
Too many candles could finish it off but don't die curious

Oh I've got some thinking to do

I saw some lovers argue on the street like they were in a living room
I was left to figure it out, who ran away with who?

Oh I've got some thinking to do
I've got some thinking to do
I've got some thinking to do
