

Outbound Plane

Tom Russell

Don't wanna be standing here with this ticket for that outbound plane

I've been here before yet somehow this doesn't feel the same
Talk is cheap though we can talk all night long
You may never figure out, yeah, where our love's gone wrong

And I don't wanna be standing here
And I don't wanna be talking here
And I don't really care who's to blame
If love won't fly on its own free will
It's gonna catch that outbound plane

Old people say love's not forever anymore
Young people walk away from love alone to pace the floor
Young or old, I say that love is still the same
You can walk away from love but you'll fall head and heels again

And I don't wanna be standing here
And I don't wanna be talking here
And I don't really care who's to blame
If love won't fly on its own free will
It's gonna catch that outbound plane

Two lonely hearts in this airport knowin'
Ain't neither heart knows which way the other heart's goin'
If love won't fly on its own free will
It's gonna catch that outbound plane

That frown you're wearin' that's your halo turned upside down
Where's the laughter we once shared back in the lost and found
These broken wings they're gonna leave me here to stand my ground
You can have that ticket for that lonely plane that's headed out

And I don't wanna be standing here
And I don't wanna be talking here
And I don't really care who's to blame
If love won't fly on its own free will
It's gonna catch that outbound plane
If love won't fly on its own free will
It's gonna catch that outbound plane
