

Talking in His Sleep

Toni Braxton

So you know everything about your lover
Wanna bet?

My oh my
How can this be there he goes
Talking in his sleep
By and by
He will connive does he know
He's talking in his sleep

The affair okay
He's caught
What do I do, what do I say
I feel ashamed, embarrassed, fatigued
Such a petty crime of sexual indiscretion

At night when he lays down
How I wish I could not hear the sound
But I could
On the things that he said

My oh my
How can this be
There he goes talking in his sleep,
By and by
He will connive does he know
He's talking in his sleep
Adultery that's what they call it
When you're married
Tell me something
Why is it that the men are forgiven and the women aren't?
I don't know may be, may be I should forgive him
May be I'm over-reacting what do you think...not!

The promises he made
Said we'll be together for always
He's such a liar
Then he calls out her name

My oh my
How can this be
There he goes talking in his sleep
By and by
He will connive does he know
He's talking in his sleep

Guilty secrets
They are haunting my life
And he doesn't even know that I know
Can you hear him

The promises he makes
Said we'll be together for always
He's such a liar
Then he calls out her name

My oh my

How can this be
There he goes talking in his sleep
By and by
He will connive does he know
He's talking in his sleep