Incapable

Toni Gonzaga

I think I'm over you
I think I'm over you at last…
Except when soft rain falls,
I remember you…
And when I think of you,
It breaks my heart in two.
But I'm almost over you,
I'm almost over you at last…
Except when I'm alone,
And when I'm feeling blue,
And when I need someone,
It all points out to you…

[Chorus:]
I'm incapable… (incapable)
Incapable… (incapable)
Even now I can't believe
That it's still so hard without you
Incapable… (incapable)
I'm incapable… (incapable)
And no matter what I do,
I'm incapable forgetting you…
You…
It's beyond my heart's control…
I'm incapable forgetting you…

I wish I'm over you…
I wish I'm over you at last…
Even when I'm with someone,
I wish that it was you
Tried forgetting you,
But it seems so hard to do…
I just gotta get over you…
Gotta get over you at last…
But no matter how I try,
Without you I would die…
Coz everything I do,
Only reminds me of you

[repeat chorus]
