

Funny Thing

Tony Bennett

Funny thing how the raindrops
All remind me of tears
Funny thing how your laughter
Is all that my heart ever hears

Funny thing how stars have lost their shine
How nights never end
All because your lips are gone from mine
No use pretending

Funny thing how two sweethearts
With the world at their feet
All at once are two strangers
Who just look away when they meet

Funny thing how I still love you
Though you said goodbye
Funny thing but who's laughing
Not I

Funny thing how I still love you
Though you said goodbye
Funny thing but who's laughing
