

In Sandy's Eyes

Tony Bennett

A love that's true, that's always new
I see in Sandy's eyes
This thrill so rare is always there for me
In Sandy's eyes

She sighs and the skies grow darker
She smiles and the sun shines through
That heaven's door that I long for
I see in Sandy's eyes.

She sighs and the skies grow darker
She smiles and the sun shines through
That heaven's door that I longed for
Is here at last, so near at last,
It's clear in Sandy's eyes.
