

For You

Tony Carey

For you I'd give up magic
Although magic's all I have
And I would even practice
Feeling good when I feel bad

I don't need anyone but you
I don't love very much, but I love you
I see you looking my way
Baby I'm looking your way too

For you I'd give my hands
Even though my hands are tied
I would love to run you ragged
You can't say I never tried

I don't need anyone but you
I don't love very much, but I love you
I see you looking my way
Baby I'm looking your way too

For you, for you
There is nothing that I would not do
For you, for you
I'd tear these paper walls in two
And I'd throw them all away (throw them all away)
I would throw them all away
I never had a lover that
I couldn't see through
But baby, I never had you

For you I'd fight a lion
If a lion came around
I would swim right cross the ocean
Catch my breath and turn around

I don't need anyone but you
I don't love very much, but I love you
I see you looking my way
Baby I'm looking your way too

For you, for you
There is nothing that I would not do
For you, for you
I'd tear these paper walls in two
And I'd throw them all away (throw them all away)
I would throw them all away
I never had a lover that
I couldn't see through
But baby, I never had you

For you
For you (you)
For you (you)
It's for you, for you (you)
(you) - (you)
