Running Away from the Thought of You

Tony Carey

I'm sittin in a hotel on claymore avenue talkin' to the walls, think' 'bout callin you but I can't go back, cause it don't come so easily I pack my bags and I'm free oh darlin

I, I'm runnin away from the thought of you I'm tellin myself that's what I should do but darlin', it just won't work out
I, I'm makin' believe that's the way to go I'll pack up and leave you before you know oh baby, it just won't work out waitin' on a backstreet with my thumb up in the air I'm burnin up the concrete, and it don't matter where

but I can't go back 'cause it don't come so easily I pack my bags and I'm free – whoowhooo

I, I'm runnin away from the thought of you
I'm tellin myself that's what I should do
but darlin', it just won't work out
I, I'm makin' believe that's the way to go
I'll pack up and leave you before you know
'cause darlin, it just won't work out girl it's true there is no one else but you but this happens every time I get scared and I run for the open air just when everything is goin' so fine

I'm stoppin at a phone booth, I wonder if you're home stuffin in the quarters, I'm feelin so alone but it just rings on it's rainin' where I'm callin from I grab my bag and I'm gone – woah ho ho ho

I, I'm runnin away from the thought of you
tellin myself that's what I should do oh darlin', it just won't work out
I, I'm makin' believe that's the way to go
I'll pack up and leave you before you know
'cause darlin, it just won't work out

tellin myself that's what I should do
oh darlin', it just won't work out
I, I'm makin' believe that's the way to go
I'll pack up and leave you before you know
