

(we are all) Criminals

Too Close To Touch

Feel the knife in your back
Give him all that you have
'Cause no blood should be shed today, no
Got a kid sick in bed
If he's broke then she's dead
And he'll do anything it takes, oh

When we're staring down the fall
Right before we hit the wall
We are all criminals
Life is never black and white
Desperation blurs the lines
We are all criminals
(We are all, we are all)
We are all criminals

Put the chains on her hands
'Cause she's taking a stand
For the people who couldn't speak, so
Lock her up 'cause a man
Put her throat in his hand
And her fists brought him to his knees, oh-oh-oh

When we're staring down the fall
Right before we hit the wall
We are all criminals
Life is never black and white
Desperation blurs the lines
We are all criminals
(We are all, we are all)
We are all criminals
(We are all, we are all)
We are all, we are all
We are all, we are all
We are all, we are all)

And throw your stones at my face
'Cause it keeps me awake
When the whole world has gone to sleep

When we're staring down the fall
Right before we hit the wall
We are all criminals
Life is never black and white
Desperation blurs the lines
We are all criminals
(We are all, we are all)
We are all criminals
(We are all, we are all)
We are all, we are all
We are all, we are all
We are all, we are all)
We are all criminals
