Gonna feel like hell tomorrow So I won't go to sleep tonight Na na na na na na sorrow Everything's gonna be all right

I am invincible, I have no fear
I am benevolent, I am the king of beers

I love all my friends, I wish they would go away I say stupid things, forgotten them all by Monday Please don't remind me

A man's bar is his castle and this stool is my throne Why am I such an asshole? Why am I here alone?

I am invincible, I have no fear
I am benevolent, I am the king of beers

She's so beautiful, I swear I'd sleep with her brother I'm so beautiful, I never met her but I love her Please look over here

I'd take a trip but anywhere I'd go My head would come along with me

Gonna feel like hell tomorrow So I won't go to sleep tonight Na na na na na na sorrow Everything's gonna be all right

I am invincible, I have no fear
I am benevolent, I am the king of beers

I am invincible, hear me roar
I am benevolent, I am the king of beers
I am the king of beers, I am the king of beers, I am the king of beers
