

Can you take me some other way.
A method you like and do I.
I'll stay behind to make it happen for you.
I know I will fall out of the sky.
I saw you breathing air and the fields through the glass.
Knew this was always gonna happen,
End up breaking down when I thought I would have it.
Now I can't be fine,
Looking at your smile.
Carry me Elise so I can wake.
