

Await His Third Arrival

Torture Killer

sermon... is about to begin come forth my children, infested human beings savior of souls and the healer of your wounds bloodstains and the bodies, predict His second coming

CARNAGE

the judgment day begins, He forgives you all your sins now all this has a price, your soul to sacrifice i command these knives, these saws and the flies the stabs i now project, your heart has to accept the hollow words of truth, i mock and abuse for grace they came to me... instead they found defeat the sermon is complete, your life now deceased they failed to see the lies... just praised the lord and died

savior of souls and the healer of your wounds willing disciples, await his third arrival
