

Written in Blood

Torture Killer

empty coffins await their occupants you will be the next to pay the rent a grave awaits your slow decay you will rotten

the shadows
take your soul away the darkness grabs you from inside for you now it doesn't exist

YOU ARE DEAD NOW
dead now

written in blood the dead await you no escape your god can't save you the coffin closes on your life regrets

long before you came to be and far beyond your memory a torment that will never end

written in blood
