

Still Waiting

Tory Lanez

I really hope you never ever get to love me
I'm thinking of all the times that you dubbed me
Now that I'm poppin' you got me right where I want, oh
Right where I wanted to be when you would love me
Caught you slippin at Liv, and sippin' bubbly
You took a look at these niggas, ain't none above me
I tried to give you my all but girl you don't know
I tried to show you affection but no it won't show
I told you 'baby just wait, we need some time and all
I told you 'just love me, gimme some time to ball
The way you lookin' is like a thousand dollars
With my confidence, took every ounce to holler
I really hope you never get to love me
I wanna be somewhere stuntin' sippin on bubbly
Not even a thought of you in my mind, visions of you went blind
Ooh just a thought just to tell me
You ain't all the way get it, but girl you felt me
Part of the reason why I always try to tell you
You held it down I'ma get you the bag with the Chanel C's
'Cause it was us against the world, fuck what they tell me
I figured they was hating on us and it was jealousy
But I should've listened to the shit they was telling me
I thought you were taking a W, was just an L on me
Now I'm caught up in this situation where L-O-V got the best of me
I'm tryna find something, tryna align something
Still hoping and praying that you'll be mine something
Out laying and hoping, praying that you ain't dead to me
I know I treat you better than your man, yeah fuck that nigga
Tried to treat you better than he can

I know that you ain't really bout to dub me
I know you wanna tell me that you love me
Girl I know you want to ride it like a Harley
Know you want to let me swim in that tsunami
Swear I never felt this way about nobody
Swear I never felt this way about nobody
Girl you got me doing things that's just not me
Sprung over you, girl I cannot be
Girl I know some things have changed
But you see, you and me, we're still a thing
I can't get you out my mind girl, you know you've been acting out of line, girl
Don't say "not today" 'cause today I got the time, girl
I've been acting like I'm fine, girl
I'm going insane, losing my brain
You playing these games, but you know I ain't
I don't be trippin' off of bitches this strange
Not to call you out your name, you know you're my main
Fuck this fame, how they came in our world changed everything
Right away, in a day
Niggas hate, bitches hate
Niggas fake, bitches fake

Girl I know some things have changed
But you see, you and me, we're still a thing

Hey baby, you should never get to love me

Pillow talking with niggas and tryna dub me
You really got the audacity to discuss me
You really got some audacity, you disgust me
And it'll kill me to say these things about you, but I know the way you think about the two of us
I know the way you think about moving on but me girl, I'm not used to maneuvering much
Tell me I'm doing enough, tell me I'm doing too much
Tell me that you been in love, girl you not doing enough
I threw the towel in twenty times, I threw it too much
Maybe this shit been a lot, plus you've been doing enough
You can't lie, you got time, you heard stories about my drip
Why does it take for me to do something good for you to come around, that's why I drift
And you know, you's a pro, known for heartbreak after the sheets
I try to keep my composure, I'm a soldier
And deep down I'm still a G
I'm gon' raise my glass to this
Fly back to Los Angeles
Won't forget you was scandalous
Won't forget you was scandalous
I'm gon' raise my glass to this
Fly back to Los Angeles
Won't forget you was scandalous
Won't forget you was scandalous
