Please do me a favor, break this nature down to bacon bits
I ain't trynna argue when I tell you girl, "just take that shit"
Problems that can wait and shit
Girl quit acting like it ain't more ain't money to be made and shit
Rock them heels and twerk up in the mirror to your dance song
Go and take a picture shorty, get your Instagram on

Got that type of pretty that should up in a news spot
Now do you want it?

It's something bout it
(You)

It's something bout how you put it down on a nigga
Know your man be fucking with your feelings girl
I got something for you, something for you, you can feel it girl
When you drop it down... That's that killer, girl
Let me get behind your lights, like plates up at the dealer girl
Don't know what you heard, but shorty 5 for you, and 10 for me
Heard that you from T.O., but that ass looks like it's Tennessee
Can you take it round, after round, after round
Throw it at me like you at the mound, at the mound
Oh, put it down

It's something bout it
(You)
It's something bout it
(You)
It's something bout how you put it down on a nigga
Drop it like it's for your favorite nigga though
Drop that shit like I just cut that check for seven figures though
Jacket back in 92' my daddy was that nigga though
I just need some time do to exactly what that nigga do
We all back to balling, someone please go let them strippers know
Fargo in the building and he throwing out tuition's ho
All ya'll don't even know I'm Mr. Round-after-round

(You)
