

Don't Hurt the Ones You Love

Toše Proeski

Another time another place with different voices another you another me made different choices but here we are baby you and I even if we turned the time around we'd make mistakes some way some how and end up when we are right now don't you hurt the ones you love

eventually
like a bullet from a gun some things can never be undone
so easily
with words you never said or said but never meant just as sure as stars above you're gonna hurt the ones you love you and I are castaways in the sea of silence what if help's not on it's way and it's all in your hands so here we are baby you and I sometimes the wind is in your sails sometimes you can just can't help but fail so let's not try and fool ourselves
