

Come Heroine

Touché Amore

From peaks of blue come heroine

From peaks of blue come heroine
With several suns you light the way when each day begins
And I'm just a risk
Atop of the moon
When I swore I'd seen everything
I saw you

You brought me in
You took to me
And reversed the atrophy
Did so unknowingly
Now I'm undone

I took my place
You showed me how
I'm softer now
Not hollowed out
Now I'm undone

From peaks of blue
Come heroine
With open arms you brought down the walls I defend
And I'm just a risk
And I'm just a risk
And I'm just a risk
A colossal near miss
Prone to resist what is best for me
Now I'm undone
Now I'm undone

From peaks of blue come heroine
Now I'm undone
Now I'm undone
When I swore I'd seen everything
I saw you
