

Revelations

Toxic Holocaust

They say the end times are coming
The warning signs are clear
On our eve of destruction
Prepare
Madness through chaos
As we approach the end
The scriptures are burning
Beware

Reveal to us just who you are
The prophets are screaming
"It's the end of the world"

You're feeling defenseless
As another psalm is read
You'll witness the rapture begin
First ones are taken
Lived without sin
Only some lives are sacred
To them

Revelations
FUCK OFF!!!

In front of your eyes the lies burn away
As the wolves devour the lamb
Terror engulfs you as your mind begins to race
Lucifer's got you in his hand
The prophets are burning...THERE IS NO GOD!!
