

God Ceases To Dream

Toyah

(Willcox / Nicholas)

Look inside now
Has God ceased to dream you?

The set was amazing
It moved like the sea
A beauty unique
Just like a new world dream

Etched on a canvas
Such clarity
You know just for a moment
I thought God had ceased to dream me
Wash over me
Sweet, sweet sea

Somewhere deep inside of me
There's an island
Somewhere deep inside of me
It's silent and still

There's a deep, clear pool

You better open your eyes now
See it all before you
The sea and the shore of you
You've slept there all your life

Somewhere deep inside of me
There's an island
Somewhere deep inside of me
It's silent and still...
