

You're A Miracle

Toyah

(Willcox / Elsimburg)

Love is time made tangible
Pain is crime made visible
Touch is thought made physical
Truth is you
You're a miracle
What I get is never what I need
I am what I am
And I want you
I want you

A kiss is life made possible
Desire is sin made acceptable
A look is words made invisible
Truth is you
You're a miracle
What I get is never what I need
I am what I am
And I want you

I want you
I want you
I want you
Truth is you
You're a miracle

And I want you
And I want you
(Truth is you, you're a miracle)
And I want you
(Truth is you, you're a miracle)
And I want you
(Truth is you, you're a miracle)
I want you, I want you
I want you
And I want you
(Truth is you, you're a miracle)
