Freed

Tracy Bonham

I've got my heart crammed in a bottle And all the while I fought so little What is this fear we hold so deeply To stand alone, alone completely?

It's do or die, it's now or never It's cats and dogs, it's helter skelter Till I'm free, yeah, free Oh, something inside me is begging to be free

We hardly live for fear of dying Then fall asleep and call it living I hardly love for fear of losing I'll hardly lose, yeah, but I'm not loving

Till I'm free, yeah, free Oh, something inside me is begging to be free, free Yeah, something inside me is begging to be free, free Yeah, yeah

Yeah, free, yeah, free Oh, something inside me is begging to be free Yeah, something inside me is begging to be free
