

Beautiful

Trading Yesterday

And time stands still beneath the air of waiting hours
To touch, just to feel a love that seems to overpower me
She's all I'll ever need
And you know her love just hypnotizes me
'til all I see is beautiful

At night I dream that you were sent to me from heaven
Cuz my life, it seems so lonely here without your presence
You could change my everyday
And I could never think of love without your name
As you remain

Beautiful
Like the summer rain to wash away the winter stain
Beautiful
Like the morning sun inviting the dawn to break
Beautiful
Like the joy that comes when the love you've longed for has just begun
Making everything brand new
Beautiful you

And all this time you're changing me to something better
A love so high that everyday that we're together
I will leave the world below
Until your heart becomes the only thing I know
All I know is

Beautiful
Like the summer rain to wash away the winter stain
Beautiful
Like the morning sun inviting the dawn to break
Beautiful
Like the joy that comes when the love you've longed for has just begun
Making everything brand new
Beautiful you
