State of Grace

Sometimes your life can be sidetracked, getting lost in things you don't need But we all lose direction in a world of greed Some people's lives end in ruin, some people's lives never star t Someone knows what you're doing deep in your heart In the hour of need you stood ready, looked danger right in the face Your heart is moved by the spirit when you're living Living in a state of grace There's a world never ending, sorrow and pain don't exist We can live there together, you can't resist Just when you think you can't take it, dreams disappear into sp ace Trust in your heart, you can make it, when you're living Living in a state of grace There's nothing worse than the sorrow of loved ones you have lo st You can't face tomorrow, you can't bear the cross But just remember that darkness in this world has no place You've got so much to give now
