I can't remember

The last time you cared about anything
The last time you allowed yourself to be seen so pretentious your lies unrelenting disguise Creating tears in your eyes your mind withers and dies pretending to be something you are not pretending to be something you are not somewhere in the middle you are now caught

You've never seen who you really are

No life breathes in you

All the time you laugh you wait you cry

No part of your life is true

All the time your life passes you by

I don't ever want to see I don't ever want to be like you, Holl ow Man

I don't care what you give Hollow man you can't live like this
Your voice is just a whisper
You call upon your blank thoughts as you try
To fit in where you missed her
You missed the chance to stop living a lie
