

The Nightmare Of Your God

Trauma

Hundreds of centuries spasms of hate
Global domination of monstrosities
Human hands in service of broken minds
Brilliant minds in ambush of mourners

2000 years marked as age of mercy
The horrible tool to melt your soul
From beginning! the child's consciousness!
The nightmare of your God

Terrorized horrified by black dimension
Depraved words to make you slave
Desire false will to clean yourself
From beginning! the child's consciousness!
The nightmare of your God

Deteriorate the black, demons in my heart
The mighty power of instinct be my guide
The absurd dogmas for slaves: "bum in flames!"
For my glory and a nightmare of your God

Repeated poisoned words becoming hate
Whispering demons hidden behind the verses
Suppurating memories in our minds
Crawling fear of death in old man's eyes
