

Rhythm And Booze

Treat Her Right

Well it was rock 'n roll rhythm and a bottle of booze
And a wild eyed woman, then she brought home the news
And then she warned me once, she warned me twice
Woman found out that I don't take advice

It was rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
Rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
Rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
I tell you the truth, it was rhythm and booze
Just rhythm!

If I'd listened to my mother, if I'd listened to my dad
I'd be lying in a big feather bed
But she warned me once, she warned me twice
Woman found out that I don't take advice

And it was rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
Rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
Rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
I tell you the truth, it was rhythm and booze
Just rhythm!

I got pissed off, I blew my stack
And I didn't mind so much until she took my Cadillac
But then she warned me once, she warned me twice
Woman found out that I don't take advice

It was rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
Rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
Rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm rhythm and blues
I tell you the truth, it was rhythm and booze
Just rhythm, rhythm, rhythm, rhythm and booze