Favourite Worst Enemy

Treble Charger

If you could read my mind Than I know you'd find everything you never say You said you needed time So I asked if you would mind If I could do the same

The senses' over blowning You're never coming You're going And it's driving me crazy Knowing what's good for you And I'm longing for the lazy days But those were never good enough

I guess that you were right When you said I might Really get bored with you I never would have guessed That it'd end in such a mess Or that it'd be this soon

The senses' over blowning You're never coming You're going And it's driving me crazy Knowing what's good for you And I'm longing for the lazy days Those were never good enough

Cause there's something about you But I can't put my finger on it It's so hard to forget you You're my favourite worst enemy

When you sat there laughing all about it Did it make you feel any better about it Can you try to hide it well enough To fake it just for me I doubt it
