

Unable to See

Tremonti

Well I don't think that I'll ever know
What it's like to just let it go
And I don't think that I'll ever be Able to trust cuz I'm unable to see

I think back to the times that I've lost
But who am I to just want it all
Now don't you feel sorry for me
If I'm unable to trust cuz I'm unable to see

And I swear I'll never fall from here
Still we sing tonight
And it will last forever, and and ever
Still we love to see a smile
But we are wronged by the ones that would never

Well I don't think that I'll ever get
To find a trace of what we had left
And I don't think that I'll ever learn
To see the moment's right to just wait my turn

I forgot any fool that I was
But who am I to just think he's gone
Now don't you feel sorry for me
If I'm unable to care cuz I'm unable to see

So we sing tonight
And it will last forever and ever
So we love to see a smile
When we are wronged by the ones that would never

And I swear, I'll never fall from here
I'll never fall from here

And I'll be, forever in a dream
Forever in a dream

And I know, I'll never let it go
I'll never let it go

Still we sing tonight
And it will last forever and ever
So we sing tonight
And it will last forever and ever
So we will love to see a smile
When we are wronged by the ones that would never
