

Goes Without Saying

Trent Dabbs

Deliver me from all of my sin
From running away
Cause I can't be saved with transgressions
Still on my lips
Remember me, whatever you do
Whatever it takes; the end of the day
Oh, we both know the truth
I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
Oh, I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
I'm confessing like it's written in stone
And I'll take the blame
Give me your faith
Cause that's sacred

And you feel it when it's gone
You and I are one and the same
And we both lose what's on the line
And salvation, could go so far tonight
Oh, I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
Oh, I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
Oh, I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
I'm sorry that it goes without saying
Sometimes
