

Leave To See

Trent Dabbs

Finally lifting off, leaving the world behind
I take the window seat so I won't see the sky
One thing on my mind, miles below
Tell me I'm not up here all alone

Did I just leave so you would come to me?
Did I make you up just so I could believe?
A hopeless notion perfect for a dream
Why do I, why do I have to leave to see

Wish you could hear my voice just beneath the sky
Wish you could hear my thoughts and never question why
Cause you're in my head so many miles above
Wondering if somehow you can feel my love

Did I just leave so you would come to me?
Did I make you up just so I could believe?
A hopeless notion perfect for a dream
Why do I, why do I have to leave to see

Did I just leave so you would come to me?
Did I make you up just so I could believe?
A hopeless notion perfect for a dream
Why do I, why do I have to leave to see

Leave to see
