

I Miss You Now

Trevor Rabin

I never ever thought these times would go
I never really thought we'd drift so far
Now oceans part our contact
Misty eyes of memory
Pictures make no substitute
Pick up your eyes and grow

It's so hard
So long, so long

I still remember things that now have changed
Early mornings in blue water
I wanna be kept in mind by you, with no disguise
I need you in my eyes
I miss you now, miss you now

I never ever thought these times would go
I never really thought we'd drift so far
Now oceans part our contact
Misty eyes of memory
I feel the distance in my bones

It's so hard
So long, so long

I still remember things that now have changed
Early mornings in blue water
I wanna be kept in mind by you, with no disguise
I need you in my eyes
I miss you now, miss you now
