

One Eye Shut

Tribes

Hey lady would you give me a second to
I've got something on my mind to share with you
I wont keep you and I wont tell you no lies
But last night I saw a change in the coulour of the sky
She said boy you know I saw it too
The blue thunder, like the worlds coming after you
I was scared, it was like nothing I ever seen
A black cloud singing hymns for you and me

Come on, forget me
For leaving you so easely
Make a new

Home boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut
Now you never get enough
Noo boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut
Now you never get enough

Come on help me, Im just asking you to be my friend
I'm no lover, but I love you til the very end
When I left her she sat there in the bathtub crying
Screaming Jesus, I said you and my time were dying
I watched the sun cut thru the sky like razorblades
Oh morning won't you come and drink the pain away
Don't wanna live my life like this no more
Spend my days laying awake on the bedroom floor

Come on, forgive me
For leaving you so easely
Make a new

Home boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut
Now you never get enough
Noo boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut
Now you never get enough

Noo boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut
Now you never get enough
Noo boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut

Noo boy
If you live this life
With one eyed shut
