

Nocturna

Trillium

I wait for night to come
When hearts are still
When minds are numb
I'm dressed to kill

Like fate devours the sun
And brings a chill
There is no one
Escapes my will

First, you'll dream
Then, you'll scream...

Moon and stars will crown me
You, who tried to drown me
Soon you'll bow before me
I am now Nocturna

Embrace the age to come
From God's own quill
The angel has sung
And fallen still

First, you'll plead
Then, you'll bleed...

Moon and stars will crown me
You, who tried to drown me
Soon you'll bow before me
I am now Nocturna

The sweet caress
Defined in infamous ruin
Flows in excess
Caught in a spinning room

Moon and stars will crown me
You, who tried to drown me
Soon you'll bow before me
I am now Nocturna
