

Stand Up

Trillium

I can only imagine what you're going through
I'll keep a light in my window in case you want to sneak on through
Brave, you stand, but I can see you crumbling
Take my hand, I'll be your stable ground

(Stand up)
I'll lift you up by your heartstrings
(Stand up)
I'll never leave you in despair
(Stand up)
We'll face it all together
(Stand up)
Stand up again,

If you're feeling let down, I'll give you cover
You won't drown, we can lean on each other
Stand up!

You know it's half of the battle to realise you need help out
It doesn't matter who made this mess
Why don't you say it out loud?
Think you can't? Well, I think you're capable
Take my hand and resonate the sound.

(Stand up)
I'll lift you up by your heartstrings
(Stand up)
I'll never leave you in despair
(Stand up)
We'll face it all together
(Stand up)
Stand up again,

If you're feeling let down, I'll give you cover
You won't drown, we can lean on each other
Stand up!

We are all drifting,
Let down your anchor, dive into who you want to be
We feel it shifting,
It's all tectonic, don't doubt you've got it

Brave, you stand, but I can see you crumbling
Take my hand, I'll be your stable ground

(Stand up)
I'll lift you up by your heartstrings
(Stand up)
I'll never leave you in despair
(Stand up)
We'll face it all together
(Stand up)
Stand up again,

If you're feeling let down, I'll give you cover
You won't drown, we can lean on each other
Stand up
