

Angelwitches Palace

Tristitia

A touch of Evil And the witchblood Runs through her spine Winterfrozen blood in my heart Lady Evil of firesign Once came down I might have lost my way and mind My true possession fairy wisdom Burn
Angelwitch Ablaze my pain Burn Witch Burn Tears in flames I slaughter the time, the moon is on fire I chase the demons away so they can wonder free
A winterwitch's dance Brings out river eyes With melting blood I silently yearn where The light dies and rain burns Burn Angelwitch Ablaze my pain Burn Witch Burn Tears in flames They feed my Darkness I'm mindless and Godless I cry with my eyes closed Until the rain ends to fall
