

Suicide

Tsar

Around the world, comets hit the new machines of man.
But their all right the two can light together... the sky...a million waves of light.

Release the sun, to untie the moon into the air
Never fear the two will fall together...tonight...
their lov'in never dies

Cuz there's no suicide, just a pretty feel'in.

I'm into you, pretty girl you make it hard to die Touch my hand and we can stand forever...in love...you and me a bove

Cuz there's no suicide, just a pretty feel'in
Don't stop believ'in, there's no suicide.

Shooting stars from coast to coast light the stars we loathe the most
And realize it's in our hands.
Send the lights on a fading sound
Send the message through the clouds
We'll never die, you're beautiful, believe me!
There's no suicide, just a pretty feel'in
Oh don't doubt your feel'ins
There's no, there's no
There's no suicide, there's no suicide,
there's no suicide, just a pretty feel'in
So don't doubt your feel'ins
Don't doubt your feel'ins
Don't doubt your feel'ins
Don't doubt your feel'ins
