

Ancient Hate

Tsjuder

Human I despise your humility
Your blood shall boil!

Apocalyptic storms form beyond
As the stars fell to the earth
I penetrated the fabric of reality
Cause I have seen through the illusions of light
And I have walked the fields of blight
Now the soil are dying for my step
Witness the day of return

Feasting in chaos, celebrating death
Wrapped in shadows I strike from above
The one spawned in chaos
The keeper of ancient hate

Apocalyptic storms form beyond
As the stars fell to the earth
I penetrated the fabric of reality
Cause I have seen through the illusions of light
And I have walked the fields of blight
Now the soil are dying for my step
Witness the day of return

Mankind - face your final death
The even of chaos
Mankind - face the black menace
The eve of Satan
