

Put Your Head Out

Tura Satana

here comes a serious subject... pro choice the government is sa yin we got no voice fuck that cuz they can't control me or tell me what to do with my body and the same thin g goes for my rappin that's right i'm smackin a man who might try to hurt me equal rights on my jersey flirt in a mini skirt you won't see me i'm dressed down wearin dickies and a beanie on my head, puttin punks to bed who can't keep up dust some as then i sweep up flip, kick the switch and i'mma rip shit quick load the clip an d i'mma grip shit tight fight the hype, stereotype, get the lead out put your head out! punk put your head out pro choice punk put your head out i'm inclined to use my mind cuz i'm intelligent but that don't mean the rest of my body is irrelivant down with the woman's action coailition w.a.c. has got my back and i 'm strapped to deal with the fools when i gotta break rules cuz a woman's got a right to choose and a right to her own life first cuz the real danger comes from a coat hanger and i dont wanna think about how many women have tried it died from it, cuz they couldn't hide from it now the men, once again wanna tell me why and when i can have an abortion- i said it that's what you heard not a four letter words written in red, i'll take the red out... then i'll put your fuckin head out cuz we won't go back! okay this is it now i'mma bust it the mic is mine when i touch it do this smooth and prove that a woman can move the crowd with a voice that's loud and i'm a pro-choice advocate you want my mic- go ahead grab for it "right to life"... a womans rights are on the line here that's why i'm here not one, one of a million the majority and the government ain't gonna be whoring me so i rock for choice, pay my dues cuz i'm a woman with a right to choose "and i'm gonna fight for my fuckin right!"
