

Hot Cars

Turbonegro

Rocky what do you think about the Sex Pistols?
What do you think about the Sex Pistols, Rocky?
What do I think about 'em?
Well, I... I... I think the Sex Pistols are pretty groovy.
Now they remind me a lot of Fiorello La Guardia, you know. Sure.
I like the Sex Pistols, you know.
What's your favorite Sex Pistols' song?
I think, um... huh?
What's your favorite Sex Pistols' song?
Oh, um - I'm trying to think right now...
I have it. Let me see.
First Sex Pistols' song I ever heard?
Yeah
I guess, Hot Cars

I drive

Drive
Drive right through the night
Ride, to the far side of the sky
We ride, we hide the fear inside
Realize, the best darkness inside

Drive
If only you knew what's here
Open the door
Leave it all behind

Drive
Strip you of your pride
Realize space is empty inside
Terrorize, terrorize burning it whole wide
We're wise, the far side of the sky

Drive
If only you knew what's here
Open the door
Leave it all behind

Drive
If only you knew what's here
Open the door
Let the darkness in

Why do you want to win this race so bad?
Why do I wanna win this race? In the name of hate
