

7 Years

Tuxedomoon

Now you're lonely
Feeling strained
Friends just talking
Walking away
He don't even smile at you
And you don't want
Another day
Then you end up
With seven years
Seven years
In one night
Sit in your chair
You sit and stare
Think about moving
But you don't do it
'Cause thinking about it
Is just enough
You start dreaming
Your eyes wide open
After a while
You open your eyes
Realize you ain't been sleeping
'Cause seven years have just gone by
Seven years in one night
Seven years in one night
