

Outro: I Surrender

Tweet

I'm faint, but I'm standing
My heart is broken in so many pieces
But here I am to receive love from you
Ooh, ooh
With all the patience
And arms wide open
You said you would
That you would handle me well
And I believe you will, so delicately
You take my heart
And you love the pain away
You said you would
That you would embrace it
So I kindly place it in your hands
(Today, today, today, today, today)
I put it all in your hands
(Today, today, today, today, today)
It'll get better
(Today, today, today, today, today)
Each day I walk with you, I know it will
(Today, today, today, today, today)
It'll get better, better (today)
Today, today, today
Better, better, better
Yeah, today (day)
Better, better, better
I know it will
Today, today, today, today
Better, better, better
Better, better, better
