

Dead End

Twelve Foot Ninja

Do I even know what I believe?
Or do I believe what I know?
I can't do this

Away, away
Na na na na

I've gone and done that thing again
Put life on hold to ride a dead horse
I go down
In seconds

I killed my darlings in a fit of rage
Sacrificed them all to be God
I go down
In seconds

I'm running, I'm running
I'm running, I'm running
I'm running, I'm running
I'm running away

Gotta get out of here
But I'm resistant to the change (Dead end)
So it all stays the same (Dead end)
I don't really wanna know
Gotta get out of here
But I'm resistant to the change (Dead end)
So it all stays the same (Dead end)
And around and around it goes

I'll avoid the truth again
Burn the bridge I'm hanging from
And it all blows up
In seconds

I'd rather be delusional
Than admit that I've been wrong
And it all blows up
In seconds

I'm running, I'm running
I'm running, I'm running
I'm running, I'm running
I'm running away

Gotta get out of here
But I'm resistant to the change (Dead end)
So it all stays the same (Dead end)
I don't really wanna know
Gotta get out of here
But I'm resistant to the change (Dead end)
So it all stays the same (Dead end)
And around and around it goes

Do I even know what I believe?
Or do I believe what I know?

I keep running
Away, away
Na na na na

I'm running, I'm running
I'm running, I'm running
I'm running, I'm running
(Away)
I'm running away
(Away)
(Na na na na)

Gotta get out of here
But I'm resistant to the change (Dead end)
So it all stays the same (Dead end)
I don't really wanna know
Gotta get out of here
But I'm resistant to the change (Dead end)
So it all stays the same (Dead end)
And around and around it goes
