

Post Mortem

Twelve Foot Ninja

Nobody's here for too long,
It's just a breath,
It's just a song,
And in the end,
No right from wrong,
You'll find it didn't matter.

You'll learn,
Every time you fall,
Better to give everything,
Or nothing at all,
What the hell you waiting for,
Better to give everything,
Or nothing at all,
(nothing at all).

If you live in the flow,
Life happens for us,
When we let it go,
If you fear the end will come,

Life happens to us,
When we're holding on.

Life is for the living,
You must carry on.

Disfrutar tu vida,
O temer tu muerte

We all arrive here alone,
We all depart here alone,
But we don't wanna go,
We all arrive here alone,
We will depart here alone,
We ought to let it go.

Energy never dies,
It moves on to its next state,
If energy never dies,
We exist into post mortem.
