

Tangled

Twelve Foot Ninja

She's lost in the mirror
Her face looking thinner
Through bloodshot eyes
The person within her
Is buried alive

The river of time keeps on flowin'
But I need her to know even though it breaks me in two

I'll be here with you
When you're tangled in the twilight
Waiting for the night ahead
I'll be here with you
When you're tangled in the twilight
Waiting for it all to end

She's lost in the river
Adrift in surrender
So close to the end
She's released now
There's nothing left

The river of time keeps on flowin'
But I need her to know even though it breaks me in two

I'll be here with you
When you're tangled in the twilight
Waiting for the night ahead
I'll be here with you
When you're tangled in the twilight
Waiting for it all to end

We're all afraid of the unknown
To let love go
Let love go

I'll be here with you
When you're tangled in the twilight
Waiting for the night ahead
I'll be here with you
When you're tangled in the twilight
Waiting for it all to...
Tangled in the twilight
Waiting for it all to end
Tangled in the twilight
Waiting for it all to end
