

Mind Games

TWiiNS

I'm waiting I'm listening
Standing at full attention
My patience is thinning
Think you forgot to mention who
Whachya think I'm dumb
I didn't know thah you're creeping
I've seenher with you and
I'm just about to bolw a fuse

You got nerve try to play with my mind
See the writinf on the wall
Like you drew me a sign
Act so cool like everything's fine
But I know, but I know, know
But I know that's just a lie

Don't tell me that I'm wrong
I say you two alone
In my mind see those games that you're playing
Don't say that now she's gone
I caught you on the phone
Stop right now wichya mind games babe

You're flirting with her and
Thet shhh just so shady
I'm burning I'm hurting
I can't believe I was naive
I bought your lies with a bow and I tie boy
I'm leaving I'm trough it
I'm just about just to blow the roof
