

You Are The Devil

Twin Atlantic

Black heart
High speed
Your sickness is the thing I need
Bad calls
Street heat
Your evil brings me to my knees

There's nothing left, so let's call it an accident
Got no direction, got no time for the ambulance
Now I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all
Paved in gold, paid in blood, I gave you control
Now I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all
Paved in gold, paid in blood, c-c-c-control

You are the devil, you'll never finish me
I'm the next level, we'll call it an accident

So sweet
Siren scream
Honey dripping from your lips, I can't handle it
Hot heat
Cool breeze
Sparks flying from the engine that's underneath

There's nothing left, so let's call it an accident
Go no direction, I'm not taking the ambulance

Now I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all
Paved in gold, paid in blood, I gave you control
Now I'm losing it all, I'm losing it all
Paved in gold, paid in blood, c-c-c-control

You are the devil
You'll never finish me
I'm the next level

You can forget it, I'm not taking the punishment
No point in counting when I know that the money's spent

You are the devil and I am the accident
You are the devil I am

You are the devil
You'll never finish me
I'm the next level
You'll never finish me
You are the devil
You are the devil
You are the devil
You are the devil
