

Afraid of the Dark

Twiztid

Hey!

The darkness is coming
Now get to somewhere with some fuckin' light
Or get taken on a wicked ass journey
The other side of reality
Close your eyes as we step into the night

You're scared of the dark
We'll be visiting haunted houses, getting possessed
And even going to hell like, hey!
Somebody tell em we're back and better than ever
And bringing the cemetery to their face
We be rocking the dead like nobody ever could
And bringing the boogiemani to the stage
So get ready for the darkness, as the night consumes the day

It's creeping again, eating everything
All of them are not ready
But something tells me
When the lights go out

You're scared of the dark
Now get to somewhere with some fuckin' light
You're scared of the dark
Don't get taken on the wicked ass journey
You're scared of the dark
Don't get taken on the wicked ass journey
You're scared of the dark
