

All The Rest

Twiztid

This is for all the women in the world, that think that men don't burn.
That when it comes to heartbreak, it is never our turn.
And it don't matter who or what is to blame, cuz the first week after a breakup, alone, always feels the same.

N she said:
I don't ever wanna sleep again
I'm alone in the world and I could use a friend.
Could you be that friend or would you be like all the rest?

Then I said:
Babygirl I'm only half the man that you think that I am and I would understand if you bit off more than you can chew like all the rest.

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again.
But she promised me she'd never leave me like all the rest.

She used to threaten me and say she's gonna leave and then maybe I would see how hurtful love can be when a heart is left broken in half and empty
And then life becomes as sad as the songs on this CD
And all she ever wanted was for me to come home
Alone without the burden of her tellin me so
On the phone that I don't answer cuz I know what she wants
And I'm buzzed so at the time I just don't give a fuck.
I'm on my way home now waitin for fights to ensue
anticipatin imitatin everything that you do
And as wrong as I may be I won't admit it to you
Cuz your just a bunch of talk
And you'll never go through
With anything that you say so I stay out all night
Til the bartender said that he's turnin off all the lights.
And then maybe on my way I hope I realize but I never do
Cuz drama's what you stickin to and baby I'm your crazy glue.

I appreciate your honesty and the fact that you're flawed it doesn't bother me
It's just a way to separate only you from all the rest.
La la la la la la...

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again.

But she promised me she'd never leave me like all the rest.

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again
(Female)But I promised you.

(Madrox)
Normal people call me abnormal because I'm pissed.
She smiled and she chuckled and blew me a little kiss.
Musta got lost in the Jose Cuervo with lemon twist
Or the sounds of bodies slappin grindin to club hits.
Can we go somewhere n talk about your sexy lil face?
I mean I know it's 2010 and ya gave me the myspace

On the cocktail napkin from under your mixed drink
But I wanna pick ya mind n see how ya really think.
Put ya up inside a dunk tank and see if ya sink.
Lay ya on the bed and spread your legs and play with your pink.
I mean I'm trippin if ya mad and I'm serious if your down.
See your smilin again
C'mon let's have another round.

Chorus:

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again.
But she promised me she'd never leave me like all the rest.

I must admit i was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again.
(Female)But I promised you.

(arguing & scratching)

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again
(Female)But I promised you.

Chorus:

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again
But she promised me she'd never leave me like all the rest.

I must admit I was afraid I was insane
I could not picture me doin this again
(Female)But I promised you.
