

Fools Like Us

Two Gallants

We go out hunting muses in the early morning dew
The empty lot behind the new development will do
N'try to pretend it's not all gone
Oh fools like us just don't belong
Yeah fools like us just don't belong
Check out the song
Sarah's tone
By rickswanson
You enjoy the comforts but you claim not to partake
You search for authenticity til you become a fake
Ya think you'll find salvation in a song
Oh fools like us just don't belong
Yeah fools like us just don't belong
Let us sing our solitudes til all throats soar
All that we inspire are broken hearts
But if it doesn't bleed
Then what's good it for
When everything's made to fall apart?
So force your heart to fall in love
Just to feel it break
And look down on everyone
Like they were your mistake
Oh the road to calvary is mighty long
And fools like us just don't belong
Oh fools like us just don't belong
Yeah fools like us just don't belong
Wuh!
