

The Moment It Breaks

tyDi

I'll think of you one more time
Then I start to feel it, break down
Tick tock, soul locks up
The moment it breaks

Why does it feels like this is guaranteed?
I'll take a breath, your words wash over me
But I'm too deep to care
Thinking impaired
That moment, moment it breaks

Tears push back, but they won't let go
Revolving me on the last blow
We raptured fate, starts to shake
The moment it breaks

Why does it feels like this is guaranteed?
I'll take a breath, your words wash over me
But I'm too deep to care
Thinking impaired
That moment, moment it breaks
